

Handouts

1. Case study – A house of hope in Botswana	15
2. Sex and gender roles	21
3. What do you know about HIV/AIDS?	23
4. Fact sheet on HIV/AIDS	24
5. Gender inequalities at the heart of HIV/AIDS	28
6. The links between sex, gender and HIV/AIDS	29
7. The KAPB model	33
8. The loveLife campaign	34
9. Have you had sex with this lady?	38
10. The portrayal of HIV positive women in the South African media: excerpt from research by Mpine Qakisa	39
11. Time for a “new start”	41
12. From despair to hope: my personal story	43
13. What the media can do	45
14. The language of HIV/AIDS	46
15. Sensitive reporting on HIV/AIDS and gender	48
16. Useful guidelines for reporting on gender and HIV/AIDS	49
17. CEDAW and HIV/AIDS	54
18. Case study: stigma and discrimination	57
19. HIV man jailed for knowingly infecting lover	58
20. Violence and HIV/AIDS risk through a woman’s life	63
21. Raping to live	65
22. AIDS drugs to protect rape survivors	67
23. PEP and rape survivors	68
24. Culture and human rights	74
25. Cultural practices that make women vulnerable to HIV/AIDS	75
26. Morality lost on the altar of money: Outdated cultural practices are spreading AIDS	77
27. Tradition takes centre stage in HIV prevention	79
28. The links between poverty and HIV/AIDS	84
29. Waking up to find everything gone	86
30. Unpacking the “household”	87
31. Andre Mlungisi Mackrill in his own words	93
32. Men need to be involved in PMTCT	96
33. Testimonies by men	99
34. Conflict fuelling spread of HIV/AIDS	103
35. Men who have sex with men	105
36. Sex work calls for control	107
37. Raped at knifepoint in South Africa	109
38. A profile of HIV/AIDS	115
39. The need for nevirapine	119
40. Gender, prevention, treatment and care	127